

Newsworthy Now

...On-Air Talent

Kimi Tokuda-Evans

Kimi Evan's was raised in Honolulu, Hawaii and is currently the on-air Weather Anchor at CBS2/KCAL of the greater Los Angeles area. She was also a Weather Anchor/Reporter from 2007 – 2008 for the local FOX affiliate, KHON in Hawaii prior to accepting her position at CBS Channel 2/KCAL. Kimi worked for Abbott Laboratories as a sales rep for 6 years (2001 – 2007). She was hired by Turner Network Television to work in the casting department for one year (1999 – 2000) before becoming an on-air talent for broadcast media stations. Kimi graduated from the University of Southern California and belongs to the USC Alumni Association Group. She is actively involved with: Media Professionals Worldwide, Asian American Journalists Association, Cherry Blossom Festival of Hawaii and Tri Delta.

Kimi introduces "Hawaii's Best Businesses that are Newsworthy Now" on local TV Stations to promote Newsworthy business leaders.

Linda Coble

Linda Coble was raised in Portland, Oregon, and anchored and reported for KGMB and KOIN TV in Portland. She spent ten years in the radio booth with Hawaii's #1 on-air team, KSSK's Perry and Price. Linda's television and radio news broadcasting career earned her numerous awards, including an Emmy, the YWCA Leadership Award for Communications and the Public Relations Society of America's Newsperson of the Year award. Linda has been a member of the Rotary Club of Honolulu since 1987, and served as its President in 1994-95. She was selected to lead Rotarians statewide as District Governor, 2000-2001. Linda chairs the Kids Voting Hawaii project, during which all students in Hawaii, K-12, in public and private schools, are given the opportunity to vote on-line for General Election candidates.

Linda introduces "Hawaii's Best Businesses that are Newsworthy Now" on local TV Stations to promote Newsworthy business leaders.